

Mitsubishi Electric Europe appoints the new President of the Italian branch

Agrate Brianza, April 20th 2021 - Mitsubishi Electric announces the appointment of Mario Poltronieri as President of the Italian branch, a role in which he succeeds Mr. Tomoyuki Sugai.

The new assignment is part of the path of growth and continuous improvement that the company has undertaken in the many sectors in which it operates.

"I am honored for this appointment and ready to face the challenges that await us supported by a well-matched and capable team, with which we will continue the path of success of the Italian subsidiary of Mitsubishi Electric. I will operate with the aim of strengthening our businesses, implementing new ways of working and new human resource development strategies, in the context of the "new normal", says Poltronieri.

"I am pleased to hand over to Mario Poltronieri, a manager with consolidated experience, who will be responsible for conducting the activities of our company in Italy from now on," explained Tomoyuki Sugai, former President of the Italian branch of Mitsubishi Electric.

Graduated in Business and Economics, before joining Mitsubishi Electric in 1999 as Head of the entire Finance & Accounting, and later of the entire Corporate Area, Mario Poltronieri has gained several experiences in multinational companies as Auditor and Consultant.
